Come join us for six days of touring through Canada. The tour will be based in the historical city of Kingston at the head of the St. Lawrence River on Lake Ontario.

All profits raised go to the AACA Library & Headquarters building fund.

Day 1: Sunday - registration with an evening Meet & Greet banquet. The tour hospitality lounge will be open through the day—pick up a list of things to do around historical Kingston.

Day 2: Monday - tour north through Ontario's cottage back country roads, with a coffee break in Sydenham. Travel down the street to Canada's oldest family-owned general store.

Then onto Westport to see a private buggy collection with lunch on your own. Return back through Chaffey's Lock that is part of the 1830s Rideau Canal System lock #37. (88 miles)

Day 3: Tuesday - head east to Prince Edward County, with a coffee break at the ACCCC Upper Canada Region car club house in Odessa. Then, take an open car ferry ride traveling through Lake on the Mountain to Waupoos Winery for lunch on the shore of Lake Ontario. Travel back on the Loyalist Parkway along the lake shore, stopping at the Canadian Prisons Museum. (98 miles)

Day 4: Wednesday - visit Farm Town in the morning, where you can window shop at a 1920's era downtown and country settings, all indoors. A hot beef and chicken buffet lunch will be served on Main Street in front of a Texaco garage. Upon leaving we will follow the Trent Canal to the Canadian Air Force Museum, where a Lancaster bomber is being restored. (135 miles)

Day 5: Thursday - run to Gananoque for a boat cruise of the Thousand Island, including a hot lunch on board. Also, plan a relaxing get together event in the evening. (82 miles)

Day 6: Friday - visit the 1830's British outpost Fort Henry. Park in the fort on the parade grounds and forward battery. There will be a closing banquet for the week in the hotel ballroom. (40 miles)

For those wanting to stay over there is a yearly indoor/outdoor antique show and sale at the Odessa Fair Grounds on Saturday and Sunday, August 10-11. (15 minutes from host hotel)
